BIG VICTORY FOR ITALY'S FORCES

Turkish Commander With His Officers and Many Troops
Slain in Tripoli

NEWS OFFICIALLY SENT TO ITALY'S GOVERNMENT

Turk Battleship Reported Sunk
and Another Damaged—
U. S. to Be Neutral

LONDON, Oct. 27.—Nehiat Bey, commanding the Turkish forces at Tripoli and practically all of his officers were killed and two-thirds of his followers exterminated in a battle fought yesterday, according to a Rome dispatch to the Italian government.
The message quotes official telegrams from Tripoli to the Italian government.

Messages today from Turin say the Italian battleship Napoli sank one other near the entrance to the Dar-denelles. The dispatches are unconfirmed. Italian censorship has reached ridiculous extremes, it being impossible to send even news of Italian victories in regular news dispatches.
Even commercial messages are closely scrutinized.

AMERICA TO BE NEUTRAL IN WAR OF ITALY AND TURKEY
WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—The State Department yesterday issued the proclamation, signed by President Taft, declaring the neutrality of the United States in the war between Italy and Turkey and warning Americans that in violating the neutrality they do so at their own peril.

RODGERS BREAKS WORLD RECORDS— FOWLER AT YUMA

SANFORD, Tex., Oct. 27.—C. P.
Rodgers broke every world cross-country record for speed yesterday afternoon in his flight from Spofford to this point, a distance of 174 miles
by the tracks of the Sunset Route, which he made in 149 minutes actual flying time. Station agents and tower men report the airplane's arrival and departure as though it were a train to the chief dispatcher.

While it is true that Rodgers had the wind at his back which of course added to the speed of the flyer, it is also true that he is flying a machine which has been wrecked and rebuilt four times since he left Sheepshead Bay, September 17. Rodgers' total flight distance up to yesterday afternoon was 2880 miles.

received last night from Port Limon

great damage and perhaps loss of life in Costa Rica. The quakes occurred

DR. HYDE BEATEN IN SECOND MOVE

Emboldened By Success in Getting First Venire Dismissed, Tried Again

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 27.—A formal exception was filed today by the defense in the case of Dr. B. C.
Hyde, on trial for the alleged murder of Col. Thomas H. Swope, to Judge Porterfield's decision in overruling the defense's motion to quash the second venire of talesmen, on the ground that the jury wheel was illegally revised. So confident was the defense of a favorable ruling on their motion, and so firmly had they built their hopes on a repetition of their previous victory, in which they secured the dismissal of the first panel, that they had interfered but little with the veniremen already passed.

FRENCH AVIATOR DIED INSTANTLY IN FALL FROM SKY

RHEIMS, France, Oct. 27.—Aviator de Sparnet was instantly killed here today by falling with his machine while engaged in army aerial tests.
The machine, somersaulting from a height of several hundred feet, turned over a number of times before landing. De Sparnet's body was picked up 60 feet from the machine.

JAPANESE RUNS AMUCK--TRAGIC RESULT

Seriously Shoots Head of Famous Moving Picture Co.,
and Kills Manager

WILLIAM C. SELIG LIES IN CRITICAL CONDITION

Francis Boggs Dead; Tragedy
Took Place at Edendale,
Where Co. Operates

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 27.—William C. Selig of Chicago, president of the Selig Motion Picture Company, was shot and seriously injured, and Francis Boggs, general manager of the Selig company's local branch, was shot and instantly killed here today, by a Japanese gardener, Frank Minnimatsu, who had run amuck, with a 45-caliber Colts revolver.

The shooting occurred at the office of the company at Edendale, a suburb, at about 11 o'clock. The Japanese was at once arrested. Selig arrived in Los Angeles this morning from Chicago, for conference with the local staff. Among those present at the time of the tragedy were J. L. McGee, business manager of the Selig company, W. Santschi, an actor, Hobart Bosworth and Boggs. While the conference was on in Boggs's office, the Japanese, who had been employed as janitor of the motion picture development plant, burst through the door. He held a huge army revolver in his hand. Without a word he opened fire with deadly effect.

The first shot brought Boggs to the floor with a bullet through his heart, and the next two bullets took effect in Selig's body, one piercing his arm and the other lodging in his head.

Other occupants of the room overpowered and arrested the Jap. He is believed to be insane.

Selig was rushed to a local hospital, where it was said his condition was critical.

SELIG HAD JUST COMPLETED AMBITIONOUS SHOW PLANS

DENVER, Oct. 27.—Colonel Selig who was shot in Los Angeles by a Japanese gardener today, left here on Wednesday for Southern California after just completing one of the largest motion picture studios in the world. He recently had a large company of actors and moving picture operators playing before his machine near Canon Clay and Central City, Colo.

Just before leaving Denver he announced that he had an engagement with Kate Claxton, Mabel Taliaferro,
and other stars to join his company
next summer.

Selig Will Likely Recover

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 27.—Following a careful examination of Selig's injuries, it was announced at 1 this afternoon that the Chicagoan would recover. The second bullet only grazed his scalp. Selig probably saved the lives of McGee, Santschi and Bosworth when with one arm shattered by a bullet, he grabbed Minnimatsu by the throat. The Jap brought the butt end of his revolver down on Selig's head with all his force, and Selig sank unconscious to the floor with his head badly cut and bruised.
McGee, Santschi and Bosworth rushed to Selig's aid and the Jap was overpowered. Minnimatsu refused to make a statement after the shooting and the police say he had been drinking heavily.

venire of a hundred citizens of San Joaquin county, from which it is hoped to secure enough men to complete the panel of the Axtell murder trial jury.

But three jurors have been sworn to try the former Lodi editor for the murder of Charles Sollars, and the case has been continued until Monday, when the new venire will appear.

ington, where they will stay a few days

White House for the winter season.
Mrs. Taft's health has been benefited greatly by her stay here.

SANIGER GIVEN TEN YEARS IN PRISON

Story Told By Bigamist, Proven Untrue, Worked Disaster for Him

LIVED WITH NO. 1
UP TO DECEMBER

Judge Scores Him for Leaving Tottering Woman for Younger One

The limit—ten years in San Quentin—was the sentence given this morning by Judge West to Joseph E.
Saniger, bigamist, raised a Mormon.
Saniger's frail story told yesterday morning was partly demolished by his first wife yesterday, and what remained of it was completely demolished this morning when two witnesses from Los Angeles testified.

Saniger had told the court that his first wife deserted him two years ago last May, and told him she got a divorce in Utah. The wife denied telling him she got a divorce, and stated that she lived with Saniger up to last December.

This morning Mrs. Saniger's sister, Mrs. C. J. Johnson, of Los Angeles, testified that in November of last year Saniger and Mrs. Saniger No. 1 lived at her house as man and wife.
Mrs. Johnson and another witness, Mrs. Nellie Toran, knew that the couple lived together most of the period from May, 1909, to December, 1910.

Saniger attempted some cross-examination, but it was weak, and only strengthened the evidence that he had not told the truth yesterday. He intimated that he had gone to Las Vegas, Nev., after his wife deserted him. The testimony proved that his wife was living with him when he left and that he was gone but three weeks.

Every word of evidence today pointed to the fact that Saniger must have known that his wife had no divorce.

Inquiry of Saniger at the jail brought out the fact that he was raised a Mormon. "His father was a very strong adherent of the Mormon church," Mrs. Saniger No. 1 and most of her people were Mormons.
Saniger said he did not know whether Mrs. Saniger still affiliated with the church or not. He said he is not a Mormon.

Judge West was satisfied that San-iger's second marriage was deliberate bigamy.

Judge West in sentencing Saniger,
said:

"From your statement, Mr. Saniger, the court felt that in all probability you were one of the parties guilty of the violation of the letter of the law and not the spirit, and if I had pronounced judgment at that time upon your statement I should have given you a very light sentence. The court's sympathy was enlisted in your behalf, but, as is the duty of the court, he took the precaution to ascertain whether or not your statement of the case was true, and, if possible, to get further evidence in your behalf. I subpoenaed your wives, wife No. 1 and wife No. 2. They told quite a different story from yours. Not being satisfied with that, there being a conflict in the testimony, the court sought further evidence of the neighbors who lived in the community in which you lived to know whether or not it was true that you and wife No.
1 had not lived together from the month of May, 1909, up until November, 1910.

"You have heard their testimony.
It is so conclusive that the court cannot refrain from finding that you maliciously misled this court intentionally. You could not have been innocent of the statement you made.
Such being the case and with your plea of guilty to this charge, the court scarcely sees where there is any phase in this case whereby the court ought to give you less than the maximum penalty provided by the statute for the violation of this code.
You were not put under oath but the court accepted your statement and gave you the benefit of every doubt.
If you had been placed under oath at this time you would be liable for further prosecution for the violation of your oath, because there is no question in the court's mind that you have intentionally tried to mislead this court in regard to the facts surrounding your case.

"Society and the laws of this state are too paramount and have too much importance for such violations as this to go unpunished to the extent it ought to be.

"You have a picture before you here it seems to me—the court has and every one here has that has seen wife No. 1 on the stand, reduced in flesh and tottering, the mother of four of your children. Then in the face of all that, after the bloom had gone from her cheek, you sought out another, a more charming one, and led her off. I can scarcely conceive of anything that is a greater violation of the laws of society, and not only that, but right in the immediate neighborhood and under the very

OLD NEWPORT WINS THE FLAG ORANGE GETS THE CONVENTION

County Sunday School Meeting Closed With Addresses
Last Night

Westminster Man Elected as President of the Association for Year

At the First Christian Church last night the Orange County Sunday School Association closed the best convention of its history. Throughout the meeting enthusiasm was shown,
and the program was full of good things. Reports showed that the work is growing and that the influence of the Sunday schools of the county for good is increasing rapidly.

Yesterday afternoon officers for the ensuing year were elected, the list as submitted by the nominating committee being adopted. The list of new officers appears in an adjoining column. In addition to that list of nominations, the committee nominated the new president, C. E. Frost, of Westminster, as a member of the state executive committee. The new president is an ardent Sunday school worker and an able leader.

During the business meeting yesterday afternoon a beautiful silk flag was presented to the Methodist Sunday school of Old Newport. This flag was given to the school that had the largest percentage of its membership present at the roll call Thursday morning.

Orange was selected as the place for the next convention. The delegations from that city asked the association to meet there, and the invitation was accepted. The next convention will be held a year from now. A new constitution was adopted and the pledge to the state was raised from $300 to $310.

Local Missions
The closing of the program yesterday afternoon was a quarter-hour given over to the local missions. The Japanese ministers were present. A short talk was made by the Spanish missionary, and a song in Spanish closed the session.

Last night's session was in charge of Mrs. Catland. Following praise service led by W. P. Coffman of the Methodist church and Rev. Paul C.
Wright of the Christian church, Mrs.
May Chisholm Brown of Mojave gave an interesting talk on "Missionary Work Among the Chinese." The speaker spent many years in Chinese mission work. She told of the alacrity with which Chinese boys and young men accept teaching in the mission schools. To the Chinese there are but two kinds of missionaries, the Protestant and the Roman Catholic.
They know the Protestant churches as one, having no denominations, and call it "The Jesus Church," and the Roman Catholic church they call "The Heavenly Father Church."

An instructive and interesting talk was given on "The Teaching Process, or Some Fundamentals," by Prof. J.
A. Baber of Pasadena, director of the Baptist Sunday schools of Southern California.

Throughout the convention there was considerable interest shown in the coming state convention, which will be attended by many Orange County Sunday school workers. This convention will be held November 7, 8 and 9, with the main sessions in the First Methodist church, corner of Sixth and Hill streets, Los Angeles.

personal inspection of your wife No. 1.

Not only that, but you went so far, from the evidence as you told me to invite wife No. 1 to your wedding.

"It is the judgment of this court that you be confined in the state's prison at San Quentin for the term of ten years. The court would feel like giving you more if the law permitted."

MARY ANDERSON GOES HOME

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—Mary Anderson, who came here five weeks ago to assist in the production of "The Garden of Allah," on which she collaborated with Robert Hichens, sailed home yesterday with her husband,
M. De Navarro. Mr. Hichens accompanied them.

"I am genuinely sorry to go," she said, "but I am anxious to see my children. When I left, Elena begged me to bring her some American dollars, and I have a box full with me—at least twenty-five of them."

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE THIS MORNING

New York Stock Exchange this morning when United States Steel Preferred, opened at four points lower than the closing price yesterday, which was 108.

After fifteen minutes of fluctuations the market steadied, but during that time fifty thousand shares of steel common stock exchanged hands with the price in the neighborhood of 54.

TRENTON, N. J., Oct. 27.—The gov-sweeping anti-trust action ever brought by the Department of Justice.

HE ASSURED CONSULS OF SAFETY OF FOREIGNERS

Events in Chinese Situation
Move With Dramatic Swiftness

SHANGHAI, Oct. 27.—General Li Yuan Hung has proclaimed himself provisional president of the Chinese Republic at Hankow. He immediately notified all foreign consuls, advising them that the provisional government will do everything possible to protect the interests of foreigners during the present unrest.

The proclamation of the Republic is the rebel answer to the government's overtures for peace, implied in yesterday's surrender to the demands of the National Assembly which agreed to terminate the revolution in consideration of immediate and drastic reforms.

General Li Yuan Hung, the self-proclaimed president, does not believe the government's promises of reform are bona fide.

CHINESE SITUATION IS

FAST REACHING CRISIS

PEKING, Oct. 27.—Developments of yesterday were as follows:

An imperial edict was issued cash-ing Sheng Huan Hui, Minister of Posts and Communications, on the ground that he was mainly responsible for the plan to nationalize the Chinese railroads, in consequence of which the present rebellion arose.

Reports from Shanghai declare that Canton has been seized by the revolutionists, with great loss of life to the imperial troops.

Gen. Yin Tehang, Minister of War, reported assassinated by his troops.
Foochow, one of the three ports
and capital of the province of Fukien, with a population of 700,000, reported captured by the rebels.

Prince Ching, president of the Cabinet, ordered before a board of inquiry at the request of the National Assembly. Leaders of the Cheng-Tuchao released from the throne.
By cashiering Hui, the government sacrifices the man considered by foreigners as the strongest member of the Cabinet, in order to avoid an open rupture with the Assembly.

CONVICT IN RACE WITH GRIM DEATH

Won Out—Reached Father's Side and Joy May Give
New Life to Parent

RENO, Oct. 27.—Racing against death 34 miles over the hot sands of the desert, skidding at lightning speed along the brink of precipices in a warden's automobile, Herbert Christie, a convict from Carson penitentiary, reached the city today in time to clasp his dying father in his arms, and the joy of the meeting will probably save the father's life. The father is Constable John Christie who was lately stricken ill with erysipelas and lung congestion, and was hourly expected to die. In his lucid moments, the apparently dying man called incessantly for his son, and the mother telephoned Warden Ray Baker, asking that her son be permitted to come to Reno to see his father. Baker immediately put an automobile at the convict's disposal and an exciting race with death followed. As soon as the constable saw his son, he recognized him, and rallied to such an extent that the doctors now hold out hope for his recovery.

FOUR MASTED SCHOONER

IN PORT AT LONG BEACH

LONG BEACH, Oct. 27.—The largest sailing vessel ever entering Long Beach harbor was the four-masted Fearless, that came into port yesterday morning after discharging a cargo of 900,000 feet of lumber in San Pedro. The vessel will take the place of the steamer Hanalei, now undergoing repairs on the floating dry dock of the Craig plant. There are three vessels in the inner harbor, the Hanalei, Fearless and Scotia, while the Westerner and Crescent, both loaded with large consignments of lumber,
are looked for tomorrow.

Mr. Prospective Buyer: AS YOU KNOW

every automobile sold has to be registered with the Secretary of State at Sacramento. Following is the records of cars sold in California in the past twelve months from Sept. 1, 1910, to Aug. 31, 1911:

STUDEBAKER	E-M-F "30" 1514	2015
Buicks	Flanders "20" 501	1094
Fords		1060
Overlands		875
Maxwells		860
Cadillacs		622
Reos		444
Hallidays		35
Parrys		20
Imperials		10

No comment need be made on the above figures other than they show conclusively that the Studebaker car is absolutely the best value on the American market.

WHILE the Kansas Tin Shop does not object to the headlines that have graced our advertising space for the past few days, we are prone to think that the author of said headlines was trying to "poke fun at us."

Had the editor of this 2nd section of the universe been guilty of the deed he might be accused of egotism, but we plead NOT GUILTY. We are negotiating for a definite place wherein to advertise our goods and incidentally—to have our "say" on the great questions and problems that interest the world in these latter days, all of which will contribute to the "safety of the nations" if we succeed in our plans. We have had lots of fun "doin' bizness" for the past half century and we want to tell of it, because it may help some tired soul to forget his weariness.

It used to be that we could get some fun by guessing on the problem of supply and demand as it affected prices of the goods we handled, when we hit the winning side we could smile and when we guessed that goods were going up and so bought largely, only to find that the "bottom had dropped out," we tried to look pleasant and guessed again, but now we dismiss the question of supply and try to find out what the nail trust and the iron pipe trust and the galvanized iron trust and the bath tub trust and the tin plate trust is going to do.

There is some fun that goes with the information that they are playing with the market and so we buy and sell and come out on the winning side half the time. Occasionally some good Christian customer comes in and says that his wife wants a milk pail just like the one she bought two years ago and he would like a cross cut saw and an axe equal to those he bought of us a long time ago. It does us lots of good and helps distribute the fun of doing business.

A deal is pending, whereby it is more than likely that the 1000 acres owned by I. M. Von Schrittz four miles southwest of Santa Ana will be leased to the Southern California Sugar Company at Santa Ana, for a period of five years.

The land is valuable celery and sugar-beet land.

PHOTO PROVES HIM NOT TO BE THE MAN

Cruz Trejo Not Caught at Pendleton—Murder Occurred July 3rd

A dispatch from Pendleton, Ore., stated that a man was being held there on suspicion that he was Cruz Trejo, wanted in Santa Ana for the murder of Jesus Cortez at the corner of Lincoln and Stafford streets on July 3. The man has proved not to be Trejo. Sheriff Paddock this morning received a photograph of the man held in Oregon, and the sheriff states that the photograph is not a photograph of Trejo. The sheriff telegraphed to Pendleton this morning, telling the authorities not to hold the man for this county.

Trejo shot Cortez in the back on a Sunday afternoon at the handball court. Trejo and his brother escaped, and have been heard of but once since they left. A few weeks ago it was learned that they had been at Compton.

ARE MICROBES IN YOUR SCALP?

It Has Been Proved That Microbes Cause Baldness

—Professor Unna of Hamburg, Germany, and Dr. Sabouraud, the leading French dermatologist, discovered that a microbe causes baldness. Their theory has time and again been verified through research experiments carried on under the observation of eminent scientists. This microbe lodges in the Sebum, which is the natural hair oil, and when permitted to flourish it destroys the hair follicles and in time the pores entirely close, and the scalp gradually takes on a shiny appearance. When this happens there is no hope of the growth of hair being revived.

We have a remedy which will, we honestly believe, remove dandruff, exterminate the microbe, promote good circulation in the scalp and around the hair roots, tighten and revitalize the hair roots, and overcome baldness, so long as there is any life left in the hair roots.

We back up this statement with our own personal guarantee that this remedy called Rexall "93" Hair Tonic will be supplied free of all cost to the user if it fails to do as we state.

It will frequently help to restore gray and faded hair to its original color, providing loss of color has been caused by disease; yet it is in no sense a dye. Rexall "93" Hair Tonic accomplishes these results by aiding in making every hair root, follicle, and pigment gland strong and active, and by stimulating a natural flow of coloring pigment throughout the hair cells.

We exact no obligations or promises—we simply ask you to give Rexall "93" Hair Tonic a thorough trial and if not satisfied, tell us and we will refund the money you paid us for it. WILL NOMINATE NEW OFFICERS ON MONDAY

Huntington Beach News: The regular meeting of the local board of trade will be held at its rooms in the Collins block next Monday evening and additional interest will attend the proceedings because nominations are to be made for officers of the organization for the ensuing year. The election will be held at the November meeting.

There are now nearly seventy members of the board. It is a body which originates all movements for the commercial advancement of this city and it represents, as does no other organization here, the business interests of this community. The coming meeting should be largely attended so that every member can have a voice in the nominations and officers be selected who will be active in the city's affairs and plan for its continued growth. The positions to be filled are those of president, two vice presidents, treasurer and seven directors. The secretary is elected by the directors.

In addition to the nomination of officers, the pier proposition will again be taken up, as the committee appointed at the last meeting should now have further data to submit to the board.

On Friday evening, the Ladies' Aid Society of the local M. E. church held a reception in honor of its new pastor, Rev. G. W. Marine, at the home of Mrs. J. C. Mason, on Walnut avenue. The parlors were beautifully decorated with asparagus fern and chrysanthemums. An interesting program, consisting of the following numbers, was enjoyed:

Piano trio, Misses Hilda Hill, Ruby Mason and Amy Helme; prayer, Rev. T. S. Crenn; address of welcome, Rev. J. W. C. Swan, and response by Rev. G. W. Marine; piano duet, Misses Margaret and Gertrude Crozier; reading, Miss Frances Howard; orchestral selections by the Mason orchestra. The attendance was large, members of the local churches joining in welcoming Mr. Marine. Refreshments of coffee, cake and fruit were served at the close of the program.

A young people's branch of the W.C.T.U. was organized Friday evening at the home of Mrs. A. W. Lindgren on Fifth street. Mrs. Anna Hill of Santa Ana, county secretary of the young people's department, told of the work in the W.C.T.U. and assisted in effecting the organization. Officers elected were: Miss Haynes Yeary, president; Lockley Livonash, vice president; Miss Grace Moore, recording secretary; Miss Bertha Proctor, corresponding secretary, and Edward Hibbard, treasurer. A very pleasant social hour followed the business meeting. Next Saturday evening a session of the new organization will be held at the Christian church, when Miss Ada B. Cummings of Santa Paula, state secretary of the young people's department of the W.C.T.U., who is now making a tour of Orange County, will address those present. All young people are cordially invited to attend the meetings.

THE RAILROAD COMMISSION TO ASCERTAIN VALUES OF RAILROAD PROPERTIES

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 27.—(Special to the Register)—The State Railroad Commission is taking the first formal steps to ascertain the value of the properties of the steam and interurban electric railways within the state. It has issued and is now serving notices directing the railway companies to file with the commission profiles and maps covering their rights of way and their station, yard and terminal grounds.

These maps and profiles are to be prepared according to uniform specifications and to be filed with the commission within ninety days. In the meantime, the railway companies are to file blue prints of their profiles and maps in such form as they now have in their possession. These notices are being served on about fifty steam railway companies and twenty interurban electric companies.

The commission's work will be under the immediate charge of Chief Engineer R. A. Thompson, who has just arrived from Texas where he did similar work for the Texas Railway Commission. Mr. Thompson has also made valuations of the railroads of Texas or the Interstate Commerce Commission. He left a day or two ago for Oregon and Washington to consult with the engineers of the commissions of those states, and will return immediately after the conference to begin active work here.

Frank Jordan's latest charge of dynamite, which was to blow the State Board of Control, and incidentally the administration, into smithereens, has resulted in the usual flash in the pan, with no further damage than singed eyebrows for the eminent Secretary of State, and a bad smell.

Jordan raised a big howl over the refusal of the Board of Control to permit him to override the law relative to the purchase of ballot paper, in order that the Zellerbach Paper Company might dispose of a surplus stock to the state at an outrageously high price. He declared that, as a result of the board's refusal, neither the primary election at Los Angeles nor the city election at Sacramento could be held.

As four-flushing has become a habit with Jordan, no one paid any attention to the howl beyond reminding the Secretary of State that it was his duty to know when the elections were to be held and to see that plenty of ballot paper was legally provided therefor. Then Jordan, on whose own word we have it that he is the one and only sufficient state official, took another look around and discovered that he had enough paper for the immediate needs, after all.

In order that there might be no recurrence of the incident, Jordan was ordered to call for bids on a further supply of paper, and to give at least five reputable firms a chance to submit prices. Jordan complied and Blake, Moffitt & Towne got the contract at a saving of more than $300 over the price at which Jordan tried to give Zellerbach the business. That closed the incident, save that Jordan may be expected to issue his usual incoherent whine, telling the voters how sadly he has been misunderstood and abused, and how the state is going to the demmition bow wows in spite of all he and Shannon can do to save it—and Zellerbach, et al.

The Gold Dust Twins are not happy these days. Jordan, who once was a jolly rover, has developed a grouch, and Shannon is recovering from a prolonged treatment at a sanatorium for that morning after feeling.

Some idea of the difference between a State government run for the benefit of the tax payers, and one for the benefit of a chosen few, can be obtained from a comparison of the prices paid for supplies under present conditions and those that formerly prevailed. In forty items covering all the supplies just purchased by Superintendent Radcliff where comparative figures are available, the total of the purchases is $212,17. At the prices formerly paid these supplies would have cost $413,778, or $201,601 more out of the pockets of the people. Honest bidding, instead of rush or orders to favored firms, reduced the cost in most instances fully one-half, and in not a few instances, to one-third the former figure. Yet Jordan and Shannon, the Gold Dust Twins who are making a fight for the supply ring against the people, say they are being persecuted.

The special session of the legislature will probably be called for the first week in December.

Pape's Cold Compound is the result of three years' research at a cost of more than fifty thousand dollars, and contains no quinine, which we have conclusively demonstrated is not effective in the treatment of colds or grippe.

CANNOT STOP THE ELECTION

Nobody Wants to Go on With Fight That Is Already Decided

FULLERTON, Oct. 27.—Fullerton stands in the unique light of having on taps an election which nobody appears to want held, but is powerless under the irrevocable workings of the initiative to stop it. The election will be held November 23 and will decide whether the sale of alcoholic liquors shall be licensed. Over four hundred have registered for this election and it is now conceded by the "wets" that with the votes of the women against them that the fight is a hopeless one. Could the election which was petitioned for before the constitutional amendment was passed giving women right of suffrage be called off it undoubtedly would be, but the machinery of the initiative must revolve to a certain point, having been set going.

The Midway View Oil Company is arranging its field operations to be in a position to commence drilling a well on its Fullerton property as soon as the Standard well is brought in. As the Standard well is located only across a fence from the Midway View property, the former's well will prove to a certainty what production may be expected in the well of the Midway View.

Late developments by the Standard in this field prove that its well on the Yriarte property is located directly on the sunline from which fact oil engineers expect that the well will prove one of the biggest producers in the Fullerton field. In advance of bringing in its well the Standard is installing an electric plant which will furnish light for several concerns operating in that immediate district.

The wells of the Midway View in the Sunset field are producing regularly and shipments of oil are being made to refineries and other consumers.

RESOLUTIONS WERE SPREAD ON MINUTES

This morning when the superior court calendar was called, J. W. Townner, first superior judge of this county, presented to the court the resolutions drawn up by the committee of the Orange County Bar Association in respect and memory of Attorney Victor Montgomery, who died suddenly a week ago. On the motion of Judge Townner, Judge West ordered that the resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the court.

Judge Townner spoke of the long friendship that existed between him and Victor Montgomery. When Judge Townner came to this section in 1882 to practice law he found Montgomery, who had come in 1875, and they were close friends.

"When this county formed," said Judge Townner in court, "we felt that Victor Montgomery by reason of his ability and hard work was entitled to any office under the new government that he might ask. But he asked for nothing. I well remember that in that non-partisan convention he nominated me for the office of superior judge, and I became the first superior judge of this county. I hold that courteous act of Victor Montgomery in remembrance."

ENGLISHMAN FINDS
NO OLD MEN IN THIS
FAVORED COUNTRY

Los Angeles Examiner: Why are there no old men in America? This question apparently revolves in the mind of nearly every Englishman who visits this country. It was propounded first by Colonel A. H. Miller, commander of the famous "Scotch Greys," who is making a pleasure tour of the country.

Colonel Miller remarked yesterday that, during several weeks of travel throughout America, he had failed to see an "old man."

Yesterday Alan H. Bordrick, also an Englishman, arrived at the Hotel Van Nuys, accompanied by Miss Clara Bordrick, his daughter. He, too, expressed amazement at the dearth of "old men" in this country.

Bordrick says that in America men don't seem to get old. That is, they either stay young longer, or die sooner, or conquer, through some mysterious artifice or adaptation, the encroachment of years.

"Either there are no old men," he said, "or very few, in America because they either look young when they are old and keep on looking young until they die or they die so young that they never get an opportunity to get old. In California I should think that on account of the excellent climate a man could be at least sixty years of age and pass for forty. I concur with the opinion of Colonel Miller that one sees hardly any old men in America."

BIG DAMAGE CASE GOES OFF CALENDAR

Fullerton News. The case of Louis Schneiderman, who formerly conducted a tailor's shop in Fullerton, and who sued for $100,000 damages for alleged false arrest, the defendants being Burns & Sheridan Detective Agency, American Bankers' Association, Detective E. R. Mills, R. D. Stone, city marshal of Fullerton, and D. S. Linberger and C. E. Ruddeoch, the two latter being bondsmen of Stone, was up for trial before the Los Angeles courts Monday, but owing to the absence of W. J. Burns the case was taken off the calendar by Judge Conley. It is improbable now that it will come up again for several months.

Schneiderman charges that in April, 1910, he was arrested in Fullerton on the suspicion he was a man sought by bank officials of Texas on a forgery charge. He complains that he was placed in jail in San Antonio, where he was almost made sick by unsanitary conditions and the attacks of insects. He says he was taken before the bankers, was found not to be the man they wanted and was released.

In the answer of Attorney Carroll Allen, for Burns and his co-defendants, it is asserted that all of Schneiderman's expenses were paid. He is said to have accepted $168 from the bankers in settlement of his claims as a result of his arrest and it is contended there is no cause for action.

Bounding Health You Can Have It

Every man and woman has an inherent right to—and can have and enjoy—the blessings of vigorous health and strength—if they will utilize what nature and science have provided for the renewing and upbuilding of the human body.

The human system works on the same principle as any piece of machinery—when any one part fails to do its work properly—the entire organization is affected.

The same all-wise Providence who created these human bodies—also provided remedies for our health preservation. The most successful and efficacious remedies known to medical science today are derived from herbs which nature primarily intended as remedies for our ills.

The most successful herb preparation that has yet been compounded is Brackett's System Builder, a "pleasant-to-take" tablet—that contains absolutely no habit-forming drugs.

Brackett's System Builder assists nature in building vigorous bodies by purifying and renewing the blood, thereby strengthening the heart, improving the circulation—overcoming nervous weakness, debility, loss of ambition, loss of vitality; by revitalizing, re-invigorating the body, brain and nerves to their highest efficiency, thus overcoming all chronic disorders of the system. For sale at first-class drug stores. 50c per box or sent prepaid upon receipt of price by Robert A. Brackett Company, Chemists, Los Angeles, Cal. CORPORATIONS HAVE RIGHTS

Those who are disposed to criticize the city trustees for compromising with the Edison company ought to review the experience of Los Angeles in dealing with rates of public utilities corporations.

The final ruling of Judge Wellborn in the U. S. Circuit Court, restraining the city of Los Angeles from enforcing a lower rate for the Sunset Telephone, serves to emphasize an unfortunate mistake made by the City Council of that city over a year ago and repeated recently.

In May, 1910, the council undertook to reduce the Sunset rate, making it equal to the Home, although the report of the city utilities commission, based on the findings of experts, called for an increase in the Home rate to meet the Sunset. The latter company took the matter into court and a temporary restraining order was granted and the money representing the difference between the old rate and the proposed new rate was impounded, to be returned to rate payers if the company should lose the suit.

An investigation by experts was ordered by the court, to determine whether the proposed rate was confiscatory, as claimed by the Sunset people.

In the meantime, Council provided an expert to make an investigation in the people's behalf, which was in effect a repetition of the work done by the Utilities Board whose report had been ignored. This expert presently brought in the same decision, viz., that the proposed rate was confiscatory. The work cost $3000, and left the city hung up without any case. No further contest was attempted; the court ruled against the city, and the $40,000 which had been collected was held by the company.

Long Beach had a similar experience in fixing water rates. The Long Beach Water Company declared that the rates fixed were confiscatory, and offered to sell its plant to the city for a little over $500,000. The city declined the offer and stood pat on its rates. The water company then went into court and established a value of over $800,000 for its plant, which entitled it to a rate higher than it had asked. That was some time ago, however, and the city has since bought the water works at a much higher price than that at which the property had previously been offered.

It's all right to make public service corporations toe the mark and come down and all that sort of thing when they are really charging exorbitant rates, but it's the part of wisdom to be sure that the rates are exorbitant before assuming an arbitrary and pugnacious position.

Christian Science Monitor

There is a school teacher out in Washington who has been making $10,000 a year, on the side, by farming. Recently he has talked of giving up teaching, but a Tacoma contemporary begs him not to think of such a thing. He is just the kind of a man needed in the school room, it says, and the state of Washington could afford to pay him much more each year to travel from district to district and show the rest of the teachers and farmers how he does it.

In some parts of the West the proposition is laid down flatly that cheap

Why Saloons Should Be Kept Out of the Fifth Supervisorial District

WHY WE WILL DO IT

(By Rev. Will Trowbridge, Tustin)

We will vote to keep saloons out of the Fifth district because we don't want them there.

We don't want them there because we don't want their fruits or their associations.

In these days no one undertakes to defend the saloon as an institution. The economist declares that it is one of the most wasteful elements in our economic realm. And this not only in commerce, but in civics. It is a commercial outlaw and a civic criminal. The business man is afraid of it. The politician knows it to be the strongest power for evil his field contains. No other one thing is so uniformly allied with all that is vicious in government.

The sociologist recognizes it as a foe to society and a block to social advancement. The educator regards it as his strongest opponent. The moralist fears it above all other earthly powers. The religionist counts it always his enemy. The Christian only looks upon it with horror. The employer reckons it as the greatest foe of his employees, reducing their producing power alarmingly. The physician looks askance when he is called to perform a serious operation on its devotees. The criminologist lay, at its door a vast majority of the world's outlawry of all sorts, knowing that it is always the close associate of all sorts of vice, and its most prolific breeding-place. The jurist can readily trace its bloody trail through the criminal docket. The philanthropist knows full well that from it springs much if not nearly all of the misery he relieves. The missionary and the rescue workers not only hate but dread its power. So does every person or element which is striving for the uplift or relief of humanity, while every power which is working for our debasement knows that it has a true and powerful ally in the saloon.

That it is an enemy of the home is too well known to be at all disputed. That it is an implacable enemy of the nation, which is nothing more nor less than an aggregation of homes, is being brought strongly to many thinking minds today.

We all grant that, generally speaking, it undermines and destroys all that is good and pure in individual character, and puts into the human heart everything that is vile and degrading. Our nation is but a mass of individuals, and the mass can rise no higher than its component parts.

It makes no defense. It claims none. It stands before us an acknowledged Pariah. Worse than that, a blight and a curse. If it is beyond defense, how can thinking people support it?

We will defeat it, then, because the best character and intelligence of our district sees what it is, and wants none of it here.

Sugar can be had only through cheap labor, and where, it is asked, is cheap labor to be had in this country? Here is another nut for the campaigners to crack.

The President has decided to remain in the open over two weeks longer, probably with the idea that in this time the enemy will have exhausted its ammunition. But the enemy seems rather to be stocking up.

When Mayor Gaynor of New York City informed his Virginia audience that helping to run the machinery of the metropolis was enough for him he also gave notice that he had no aspirations to gain the White House.

There is something very like good common sense in the statement that the motorman of an automobile should be relieved as completely from conversation with passengers as the motorman of a trolley car.

The budget of Yale University for this year foots up something like $1,500,000. Which goes to show that the higher education is coming higher and higher. But the main question is, isn't it worth all it costs?

International conventions that prohibit one country from exporting sugar beyond a given quantity when other countries are in need of the product serve little good to either producer or consumer.

To judge from what the speakers at the Lake Mohonk conference advance the American Indian has progressed more within the last half century than have any other people similarly situated.

It is never too late for the Filipinos to admit the benefit of American administration, as they are doing now.

The Chinese republic so far has been assuming shape only in the newspapers, and mostly in their extras.

The interest in this splendid work of the Ebell is still active, and many new friends are being found. Already fifty-two different children have been cared for at the nursery. The average of the regular attendants is about eight, while often three or four are left for the day.

There is on hand a good assortment of outgrown clothing. We would be glad of some clothing for a 14-year-old girl. We wish to thank the following: Ebell, first section of Household Economics, for a rug; Nicking Hardware Co., for a load of kindling; Mrs. D. L. Anderson, clothing; Mrs. Dr. Wehrly, playthings and clothing; Mr. McKendall, oranges; Mrs. Mac O. Robbins, a new dress for one of the little girls; Mrs. J. W. Sackman, 10 jars of fruit, tomatoes and jam; Griffith Lumber Co., a load of kindling. The children enjoyed a fire these cold mornings; Mrs. Fred Case, a boiled ham, 11 jars of fruit and playthings; the women of the Baptist church, a quilt, meat, melons and bread; Miss Rosa Clausen, the domestic science teacher, a cake; Mrs. Smiley, clothing; Mrs. Barrett, celery, bananas and a pudding. Mrs. Stone has made and given to three of the little girls nice warm undershirts and a new dress for one little girl to wear to Sunday school. Donations of any kind are gladly received.

GRAY-PHILLIPS

Pretty Home Wedding of Well Known Young People Took Place Yesterday

A beautiful home wedding occurred at the residence of W. H. Phillips on East Fairhaven avenue, Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock, when his daughter, Corinne, became the bride of Mr. Edward Gray of El Modena.

The bridal couple stood under an arch of date palms and evergreens from the center of which swung a lover's knot of yellow and white ribbon. Rev. Stem of the Methodist church, South, officiated, the impressive ring ceremony being used. The ring was carried on a gold tray by little Catherine Hutchinson, a niece of the bride.

The bride's dress was white chiffon over lemon-colored silk trimmed in satin folds, hand embroidery and dainty lace. The bridegroom wore the conventional black. The little ring bearer was dressed in white with blue trimmings.

The house was beautifully decorated, the color scheme being yellow, white and green. Festoons of ferns reached from the center of the spacious parlor to the corners of the room. Large bouquets of yellow and white chrysanthemums were used profusely. Refreshments of Dragon ice cream and cake were served.

The bride's going away dress was a tailored suit of Alice blue and green with accessories to match.

Mrs. Gray is well known, having lived here since early childhood. She is a graduate of Santa Ana High School, also of Orange County Business College, and has many warm friends. Mr. Gray is also well known over the county, having been a resident for several years. Both will be wished every happiness and prosperity. Many handsome gifts of china, cut glass, linen and other useful and dainty articles testified to the esteem of many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Gray left by auto immediately after the wedding for an unknown destination. They will be at home to their friends after Nov. 15.

Those present were: W. H. Phillips, father of the bride; W. A. Phillips, wife and son, Mr. and Mrs. Wyland and Mr. and Mrs. John Adams of Orange; Mr. and Mrs. L. Hutchinson and two daughters, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Blackburn and daughter, Alhambra; Mrs. J. T. Moorehead, Mrs. Ella Curry, Mrs. Fannie Platt of Tustin; Messrs. and Mesdames Will Blake, Drake, Byron Johnson, W. N. Stearns, E. V. Stearns, A. H. Farley, C. E. Frazer, Arthur Day and son, Mrs. Harned, Dr. Thos. Jefferson Haughton and daughter, Dr. J. P. Boyd, Miss Alice Crawford, of Santa Ana.

The Guild tea Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frank By, on East Ninth street, was a delightful affair. WEDDING BELLS

Miss Edith Spangler Becomes Bride of Flake Smith at Home Wedding

The wedding of Miss Edith M. Spangler and Flake L. Smith took place yesterday evening at 5:30 o'clock, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Dora Spangler, 638 North Birch street. Rev. A. F. Stem of the Methodist church, South, officiated at the simple ring service that united the two young people.

The bridal party entered the parlors to the strains of the Lohengrin wedding march played by Miss Cora Siefert. Attended by Miss Alma Plaven, a winsome bridesmaid, and Will Vaughn of Los Angeles as best man, the bride and groom took their places under a floral wedding veil, a creation of white chrysanthemums. Magnificent chrysanthemums of bridal white and ropes of smilax were used lavishly in the decorations of the various rooms.

The distinguished looking bride was most attractive in her wedding gown of pearl trimmed white satin, while the groom was in conventional wedding attire. They were the recipients of loving congratulations after the beautiful marriage ceremony, and were the center of attraction as the company assembled at an elaborate wedding supper spread on long dining tables exquisitely decorated. They speedily disappeared, however, when the review of the wedding gifts was progressing, and slipped away to parts unknown.

The wedding gifts were many and elegant, a large number coming from the groom's relatives and friends in the East. A generous check from the groom's father was seen among the dainty cut glass and linen, silver and other substantial gifts.

Mrs. Smith has lived here all of her life and is highly esteemed. She is a graduate of Santa Ana High School. Mr. Smith came here from the East and has won scores of friends in Santa Ana. After their return from their wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Smith will be at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Spangler, until they complete a new home for themselves.

Those witnessing the ceremony yesterday evening were Mrs. Spangler, the bride's mother, Mr. and Mrs. George Spangler, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Spangler, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. George Barnett, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Babbitt, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Babbitt, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hill, Misses Fern and Irene Smith, Nellie Geyer, Hazel Grey, Cora Siefert, Messrs. Joe Babbitt, Floyd Geyer, Leslie Mitchell of Santa Ana. Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Marsh of Orange; Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Haver and Mr. and Mrs. Smith of Fullerton; Charles Spangler, Mr. Reed and two sisters from Pasadena; Miss Alma Plaven, Smetzer; Adeline Mitchell and Mr. Will Vaughn from Los Angeles.

OSTEOPATHY

There are a great many diseases that are classed as nervous diseases, which are only nerve irritation, disturbed function. Generally speaking there are two great nervous systems in the body—the cerebro-spinal and the sympathetic.

The brain, spinal cord, and the nerve fibers emerging from the spinal canal between each vertebra constitute the cerebro-spinal nerves. The sympathetic nerve system is a chain of ganglion extending the whole length of the spinal column, yet not within the spinal canal. They lie along the heads of the ribs just in front of the spine. These two nerve systems are very closely associated, yet their work is entirely different. The cerebro spinal nerves control motion and sensation of the muscles of the body. When we walk, move the hands or any other muscles that under control of the will, it is the cerebro-spinal nerves that carry the impulse, and any disease affecting the motion or sensation of these muscles may be traced to some interference with these nerves. On the other hand the sympathetic nerves control nutrition, and motion of organs over which our will has no control, such as the heart, lungs, stomach, bowels or any organ that works without our will to do so, and diseases of these organs and of nutrition generally, may be traced to some cause that interferes with the sympathetic nerves.

There are two ways that nervous diseases may be produced. First, and most common, is some mechanical irritation to nerve fibers, which may interrupt the function of this nerve, and second, a weakness or degeneration of nerve centers from lack of proper blood supply—this latter is of course the more grave, and is often a result of the former—in other words, what at first was simply a functional disturbance not corrected may lead to degeneration of the nerve center, and then we have a nervous disease sure enough, for this means death to the cells, and paralysis to the tissues it supplies. Paralysis due to the pressure upon a nerve fiber is curable. Paralysis due to degeneration of nerve centers may not be. We cannot replace cells that have degenerated to the point of destruction.

There are many people suffering from what they term nervousness, whose whole trouble is due to some slight obstruction, or pressure upon the nerve strands. These cases yield quickly and permanently to osteopathic treatment, for it goes directly to the cause of their trouble.

Any system of treatment that depends upon deadening sensation on one hand, or stimulating weak and debilitated nerves on the other without regard to causes, it seems to me can only be of temporary benefit.

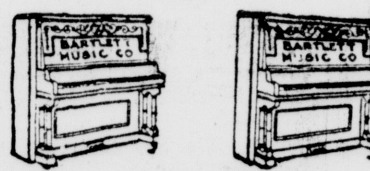

Nerve centers that are overwrought may be quieted, and will remain quiet so long as the effect of the narcotic remains in them, but when this has worn off, the same cause, still being present, will irritate them again. Nerves that have been overwrought to the point of exhaustion, may be stimulated, but it is very like overloading your horse, putting on the brakes, and placing rocks in front of the wheels, and then using a whip on the horse. The system of treatment that will unlock the wheels, remove the obstructions, take off some of the load, and incidentally open up the circulation, and throw some good pure blood to the weak nerve centers and feed them, certainly offers more hope of a permanent cure. Doesn't this look reasonable? Think it over!

The properly trained osteopath is the machinist of the human body. He does not whip the vital forces, he removes pressure and other obstructions from their path. In other words he does not treat the disease. He treats the condition that produces it.

I know of no troubles that yield more quickly and satisfactorily to both patient and physician than nervous troubles under osteopathic treatment.

We are always glad to explain our treatment to those who are interested.

The Anti-Saloon Scimeter

Published by the Anti-Saloon Campaign Committee of the Fifth Supervisorial District of Orange County, California.

OUR EDITORIAL "BOW"

Through the courtesy of the Register and the activity of the campaign committee, these columns have been set apart for occasional articles concerning the fight precipitated upon the Fifth Supervisorial district by the Liquor Dealers' Association. They will be filled from time to time with matter prepared by a committee appointed by the district campaign committee, which assumes all responsibility for the sentiments here expressed.

IS IT A RUSE?

The talk about withdrawing the petition may be all straight, and again it may not. Past years have made some of us very suspicious of every such move by the enemy. They may want time to work out some "colonization" scheme. They may think to thus lull us to sleep and catch us off our guard. It may be but an endeavor to avoid a crushing defeat at the polls, which would be far more injurious to them than a graceful withdrawal. That they are doing it to save the county money is hard to believe. If they thought they could get saloons, their pretended economy would vanish.

It is safe to oppose the move on general principles simply because they want it. But at any rate, let us not diminish our interest or decrease our activities in the least until it is settled. Keep a. work. Keep awake. Keep praying. They are not only sharp at political trickery, but are absolutely without either principle or honor. Don't trust them a minute.

A MATTER OF DUTY

Should the Liquor Dealers' Association win out in the coming election in the Fifth district it will be largely if not wholly because of the carelessness of those who are at heart opposed to them. There is little if any doubt that the majority of the voters of the district are opposed to the introduction of the saloon, and especially so since the enfranchisement of women; but it is none the less true that the best estimates are that there will be but little to spare even now unless every one opposed to the institution does their full duty at the polls.

You need not have any doubt that the enemy will poll every vote they can. It is a matter of dollars and cents to them, and dollars and cents count for more in the average political campaign than all the principle or morality any party can muster. This is so well known among politicians that they always expect to have about a third, or, in some cases, even a half, of the moral element stay at home, and are seldom mistaken in their estimate. Theorize as we may, men and women of today do not stand as solidly for right principles as they do for either partisanship or personal privilege.

With the Liquor Dealers' Association it is a matter of actual dollars and cents, while with the temperance element it is merely a matter of the protection of homes and loved ones. I say "merely" so, and mean just that. Experience in many campaigns similar to this one has convinced the writer, against his will, that the voters, as a mass, do not feel the power of those things which should be the greatest elements in determining the ballot. Of course, it doesn't sound nice, but it is true none the less.

Cannot the voters of this district make this campaign a striking illustration of the fact that here in the Southland we do think more of those things which should be most dear to us; and that our higher impulses do occasionally at least control our franchise? I propose to vote. Do you? And see to it that your neighbor, who is inclined to neglect such things, votes. Will you?

AN ORGANIZED OPPOSITION

The Liquor Dealers' Association, the power which is financing and pushing the campaign for the introduction of the saloon into the Fifth district, comes into the fight thoroughly organized and fully equipped for it. If they had not been all ready, and if they had not figured out the likelihood of a campaign which would be "successful" from their standpoint, you may be fully assured that they would have taken no steps to precipitate the matter. The fact that they took the initiative is evidence that they were all ready for the campaign and thought they had more than a fighting chance of winning out.

Nor are they inexperienced in the matter. They have men in their ranks and in their employ who have been through the fight time and again, and know how to win even where the outlook seems hopeless. They know how to control the vote of the drinking classes, and stop at nothing to secure their ends. They are not hampered by any conscientious scruples nor by any consideration of either public or private honor. Nothing is too contemptible for them to use so long as it will make votes. They know thoroughly that a large part of their support comes from men who have no scruples against anything, and they waste no time appealing to the educated or principled masses.

Do you notice that you see nothing in the public press sustaining or supporting their claim upon the franchise of thinking people? They waste no time appealing to them, knowing that little of their support will come from that quarter. They hold no public meetings, nor in any way try to awaken the public conscience. The less stir there is, and the less public conscience is aroused, the better their chance of success. What they do is done quietly, insidiously, in darkness and innuendo, by falsehood and sneers, working upon the passions and appetites of the vile and debased. Here and there a decent voter supports them, but such grow less and less the more there is openly done in the campaign.

Nor do they lack for money to push their fight. They have behind them almost unlimited capital which they are ready to spend freely so long as they can see where they will get it back from the poor gulls they sell to over the licensed bar. They can well afford to spend $2,000, or even $10,000 in this campaign. It will not take them long to make that much profit out of the liquor they would sell if there were open saloons. It would be a matter of good business principles from their standpoint, but it would be injurious to all legitimate business to exactly the degree that it was successful for them.

But their greatest leverage is the generous district on liquor to its slaves and devotees. Men who would not sell their votes for thousands of dollars will sell themselves for a drink of liquor. Let me prophesy that, as the campaign progresses, "speakeasies" and "blind pigs" will get more and more numerous, each one backed by the parent association, and each one put here to hold voters into line for the final test.

A SERIOUS MISAPPREHENSION

Though repeated denials have been made, both in public and in private, by those who should and do know the law, there are those who, for the sake of quieting the consciences of some, persist in spreading the report that it will be impossible to put a saloon in the village of Tustin if the proposed change should be made at the forthcoming election, and this district should vote to license such institutions.

Among those who have investigated the matter there are no two opinions, but there is perfect unanimity in the statement that, if this district votes in favor of licensing the saloon, there is no possible legal method, under existing laws, whereby we can prevent the location of a saloon at any point which those demanding a license may select. The action of a majority in voting for the saloon will be just as mandatory upon the board of supervisors to grant any license legally requested as a vote against license would be against it. They have no choice. No petition against license can have any force with them, any more than can their personal feelings or desires in the matter. Should the voters demand licenses, licenses must be issued, and no person or combination of persons can exclude any neighborhood within the district from the action of the law.

Because some sections have certain legally imposed restrictions, many think that those restrictions are general; but they are not. For instance, Los Angeles city has a restriction demanding that a certain proportion of owners of the property adjacent to the location chosen for the saloon must consent to its establishment; and in other localities other similar restrictions exist, but we have no such protection in this supervisorial district. The supervisors will have nothing of this sort to hide behind should they hunt for it. And, to be frank, it is questionable indeed whether more than two of them would hunt.

From a business standpoint Tustin is the best point between Santa Ana and Oceanside for a "roadhouse"; and few men who are mean and low enough to run a saloon are too decent to care where the house is so long as they get the patronage. They would as soon ruin Tustin boys as Capistrano boys. Tustin money is just as good to them as El Toro or Laguna money. Their only desire will be to get the best location possible for their business, and those who know conditions know that the desirability of our town for such a business can scarcely be overestimated.

The only possible way to be at all sure that a "roadhouse" will not be located at Tustin is to defeat the Liquor Dealers' Association at the proposed election.

A HARMLESS WAY TO DARKEN THE HAIR

A Little Sage and Sulphur Makes Gray Hair Vanish—A Remedy for All Hair Troubles

Who does not know the value of sage and sulphur for keeping the hair dark, soft, glossy and in good condition? As a matter of fact, sulphur is a natural element of hair, and a deficiency of it in the hair is held by many scalp specialists to be connected with loss of color and vitality of the hair. Unquestionably, there is no better remedy for hair and scalp troubles, especially premature grayness, than sage and sulphur, if properly prepared. The Wreck Chemical Company of New York put up an ideal remedy of this kind, called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, and authorize druggists to sell it under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented. This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists. Special Agent, Rowley Drug Co.,

SELECTION IS SLOW PROCESS

Overacker Defense Took Up Entire Day Examining Sixteen Talesmen

Yesterday, the first day of the trial of S. H. Overacker on the charge of murdering G. A. Winn at Newhope in January, 1910, was taken up in minute and lengthy examination of talesmen by the defendant's attorney, R. E. Tarver and F. H. Moore. During the day sixteen men were examined, and nine of them were excused for cause. Seven were passed for cause, but any or all of them may be dismissed on examination by the prosecution or by challenge.

Eight out of the nine who were dismissed for cause stated that they had fixed opinions in the case. They were D. P. Crawford, A. J. Armstrong, J. A. Nunn, Jacob Mueller, H. H. Reeves, G. T. Shaffer, A. S. Adams and D. W. Ellis. D. T. Moore was excused because his hearing is faulty. Adjournment was taken yesterday afternoon until next Monday.

Re-imburse County
Public Administrator Winbiger and Judge West have allowed two claims put in by Orange County for the keep of Miguel Krawshewski during the last three years of his life. A larger claim could have been allowed had not the claim for the first three years of the last six years of the man's life been outlawed. For money advanced to Krawshewski in the last three years a claim of $240 is allowed, and for meals furnished him, $72.50.

When Krawshewski died, a grand daughter of Los Angeles appeared to contest for letters on the estate, which was worth about $500. The county backed the public administrator for the administration because it feared that should the granddaughter be in control the county would have to use for its claim. Winbiger won.

Judgment Entered
Judgment for the plaintiff was entered today in a quiet title suit in which A. V. Smith is plaintiff and E. N. Snook and S. H. Watson are defendants. Watson did not appear and Snook disclaimed any title.

Marriage Licenses
Joseph R. Gaynor, 25, and Jenness G. Martin, 38, both of Los Angeles; James J. Jones, 22, and Bertha E. Tooser, 22, both of Pasadena.

NEW EVIDENCE IN THE REV. RICHESON CASE

BOSTON, Oct. 27.—Rev. Clarence V. Richeson, two days before the death of Avis Linnell secured a small quantity of flour and water from Mrs. F. H. Carter, with whom he boarded in Cambridge, explaining that he wanted it to make paste to repair the bindings on some of his books.

In returning the bowl in which he had mixed the paste he told Mrs. Carter to wash it out thoroughly as there had been poison in it.

Mrs. Carter made this important disclosure to the International News Service yesterday and it is certain the repeated information in her testimony before the special grand jury.

A HEAVY SHOWER BEGAN AT 2.40

Slight sprinkles and showers about noon today turned into a hard, beating rain at 2:40 o'clock, and for nearly half an hour the fall was steady and hard. Rain now will do little harm except to walnuts, all of which are not gathered. The bean crop is harvested and all but the last of the beets are harvested.

In English

"Paquita" the Spanish musical comedy hit, presented at the Bell last night, by the Starland Musical Comedy Company, is rendered in English, and not in Spanish as a few have supposed, all lines, and songs are in English, while the music, costumes, settings, etc., are typical of Spain. This explanation is prompted by a remark overheard, "that there is no use going, as it is all in Spanish." Not so, for everyone can understand every part of it, and will thoroughly enjoy the same, and to say that it is novel, and beautiful, does not express it. Last night's audience was the second largest of the week. A number saying it was "too much for the money."
